

The Sunday School Store

Thank you for downloading this free coloring page bundle. I am grateful for your trust. It is my personal honor to share these resources with churches around the world.

Mandy Groce created most of these illustrations for my free website, Ministry-To-Children.com. This new edition comes in a higher resolution and includes new vector SVG files. For simplicity, we've included all the images in a single-PDF download. If you need access to single files, use this link to access them on Google Drive.

Like all our digital resources, you have unlimited permission to print, copy, share. Please use them in any way to bless the children (and adults) in your life.

Reader donations and your support at The Sunday School Store pay for these free materials. Please keep us in mind when you are choosing your next children's ministry curriculum.

Finding a solid curriculum can be hard, especially when budgets are tight. That's why our digital material is so affordable. We help small churches make a big impact with powerful Gospel-centered resources. Now you can focus on your calling to share Jesus with the kids.

That's my picture above - a selfie on the school bus I drive. You can contact me or email support@sundayschool.store with questions (or just to say hello).

May God continue to bless your ministry!

Teacher Talking Points: Mother's Day Coloring Pages

Main Idea: Mother's Day is a holiday about showing respect, love, and honor to mom. Use these talking points to focus the art time back to this important truth.

The goal is building a relationship with your students through conversation while they process the main idea. These questions are only a guide, please adapt and follow the natural flow of conversation as you talk with your students.

For students who do not have a mom in their life, you can talk about other female adults who care for them such as grandmother, aunt, or even schoolteachers. Be sensitive and know the needs of your class.
